

The Relationship of the Father and the Son Revealed

Behold and Become

Family Business

But Jesus replied, “My Father is always working, and so am I.” So the Jewish leaders tried all the harder to find a way to kill him. For he not only broke the Sabbath, he called God his Father, thereby making himself equal with God. John 5:17-18 (NLT2)

Revelation of Jesus, The God-Man

- Jesus’ relationship with the Father is love.
- Jesus is following his Father’s leading, training, and goals.
- Jesus has power and authority like his Father.

Like Father Like Son

For just as the Father gives life to those he raises from the dead, so the Son gives life to anyone he wants.
John 5:21 (NLT2)

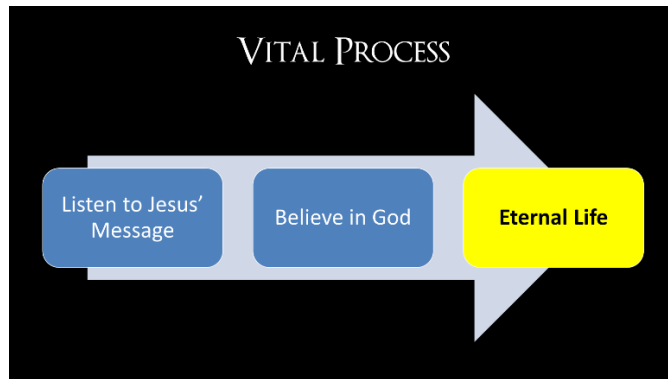

Honor for Father and Son

In addition, the Father judges no one. Instead, he has given the Son absolute authority to judge, so that everyone will honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Anyone who does not honor the Son is certainly not honoring the Father who sent him. John 5:22-23 (NLT2)

The Key to Life

I tell you the truth, those who listen to my (Jesus) message and believe in God who sent me have eternal life. They will never be condemned for their sins, but they have already passed from death into life. John 5:24 (NLT2)

Vital Process

More Revelation of Jesus, The God-Man

- Jesus' voice will be heard by the dead.
- Jesus has power and authority to judge and raise people from the dead.

Jesus' Power and Authority

And I assure you that the time is coming, indeed it's here now, when the dead will hear my voice—the voice of the Son of God. And those who listen will live...

The Father has life in himself, and he has granted that same life-giving power to his Son. And he has given him authority to judge everyone because he is the Son of Man. Don't be so surprised! Indeed, the time is coming when all the dead in their graves will hear the voice of God's Son, and they will rise again. Those who have done good will rise to experience eternal life, and those who have continued in evil will rise to experience judgment. I can do nothing on my own. I judge as God tells me. Therefore, my judgment is just, because I carry out the will of the one who sent me, not my own will.

John 5:25-30 (NLT2)

Proof That Jesus is The God-Man

- John the Baptist's Testimony
- Jesus' teachings and miracles provide evidence
- God the Father has testified Jesus is the one
- The Bible points to Jesus
- Moses wrote about Jesus

Witnesses to Jesus Being God's Son

If I were to testify on my own behalf, my testimony would not be valid.

But someone else is also testifying about me, and I assure you that everything he says about me is true...

Of course, I have no need of human witnesses, but I say these things so you might be saved.

John was like a burning and shining lamp, and you were excited for a while about his message.

But I have a greater witness than John—my teachings and my miracles. The Father gave me these works to accomplish, and they prove that he sent me.

And the Father who sent me has testified about me himself. You have never heard his voice or seen him face to face, and you do not have his message in your hearts, because you do not believe me—the one he sent to you.

“You search the Scriptures because you think they give you eternal life. But the Scriptures point to me! Yet you refuse to come to me to receive this life.

“Your approval means nothing to me, because I know you don’t have God’s love within you. For I have come to you in my Father’s name, and you have rejected me. Yet if others come in their own name, you gladly welcome them. No wonder you can’t believe! For you gladly honor each other, but you don’t care about the honor that comes from the one who alone is God.

“Yet it isn’t I who will accuse you before the Father. Moses will accuse you! Yes, Moses, in whom you put your hopes. If you really believed Moses, you would believe me, because he wrote about me. But since you don’t believe what he wrote, how will you believe what I say?”

John 5:31-47 (NLT2)

Belief Checks

- When a person who believes God hears about Jesus, they believe him too. John 5:37, 38
- When a person believes the Scriptures, they will believe in Jesus too. John 5:39, 40 & 45-47
- When a person believes God, God’s love is in them and they will honor him, not people. John 5:41-45
